Old Business:

Shelving redesign plan- The Library has undergone some major shifting. The backlog of magazines older than 1 year and the books on cassette have been withdrawn. The kids' fiction (Junior Fiction) that was located at the end of Adult Non-Fiction has been reunited with the rest of the kids' fiction. This made room to move the Pacific Northwest collection and Foreign Language to the end of Adult Non-Fiction. Large Print was shifted as well to make room for the books on CD to come out from behind the circ desk and be available for the public browsing.

New Business:
